And this is how it works:

Moisten one Paint sponge and apply the green colour to the visible side of the frame, as you will end up gluing the individual components together anyway.

Now take up white paint with the sponge and wipe it into the still wet green paint.
When everything has dried well, prime the other surface of the back of the frame in white so that the fabric can be shown off to its best advantage.

Now glue the fabric to the dry, white primed back of the frame by spreading the Eagle Owl Contact glue over a large area of the surface. You can place the fabric over it and press it down gently. Cut off overhanging fabric easily.

To give the frame depth and a vintage look, take the StazOn stamp and pull the cushion over the edges of the frame. Wipe carefully over the front of the frame, even in selected areas.

Now glue the individual components together with the hot glue gun

To decorate, cut the tip to the size of the frame. It is stuck to the picture frame with the tape Ribbon .
Buttons, hearts and keys are glued with hot glue to their Position brought.

You can wipe over the edges with this once again Ink Pads .
Now connect the frames with the jute bands.
