Instructions No. 1742

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 45 Minutes

Create this pretty wreath of silk flowers with a few simple steps and a little skill. It looks great and attracts admiring glances. Perfect for decorations on windows or doors.

This is how you design the wreath:

Cut your desired Silk paper cut it into strips, a little wider than your punching motif. Fold it so that you can make several circles at the same time for the flowers with a Craft Punch can punch out. For one flower you need about 3-4 tissue paper circles. Now lay the folded Silk paper one with any one of them Craft cardboard sheet in the Craft Punch and punch out circles. You only Craft cardboard sheet need it for the punching to work. Repeat this process until you have created all the colours you want for your flowers.

Now cut off approx. 15 cm of winding wire from and Florist tape wrap.

Now take about 3 - 4 tissue paper circles in the desired colour and put them in the middle of one end of the wire. Press them together at the bottom and fix them to the wire with a little bit of Florist tape. pluck until Silk paper the desired flower shape is created

At the other end of the wire also attach a flower. For the leaves, cut off from Florist tape strips about 5 cm long and wrap them around the wire until they are about 2 cm long. Turn this end twice and round off the corners

Create as many flowers with leaves as you like in this way. Wrap the metal ring around it Florist tape and then wrap and arrange the flowers around the wreath. Add more leaves to your wreath if necessary.

At the end attach a Satin ribbon to hang on the wreath.
