Light arch with Christmas market scene

Instructions No. 872

Capture the Christmas season in an atmospheric way! On this Light arch the background is painted with the help of the painting template itself. Together with the miniature handicrafts, the result is a beautiful Christmas market scene.

And it is as simple as that:

The back wall arched plate is primed in white, the base plate with gray Now Handicraft paint. the painting pattern is transferred to the arched plate.

First the outer wreath is painted with green paint and black shades to form a garland. Small "garlands" are also painted around the tealight recesses of the base plate.

The setting for the house is now designed according to personal taste. The street should be painted in the same way as Grey the base plate. Use a fine brush to draw black borders around the scenery and windows and draw the street lines.

Finally, you can use one as Bristle brushes Structure Paste a poke on Decorative snow the painted garlands. With a Pearl Pen applied small red dots give even more structure and look like

After drying, the fir tree is glued to the middle of the base plate with hot glue. Then it can be screwed Light arch together. It should be made sure that the cable of the fir tree is Light arch hidden behind it. Now glue on the other figures, putty Structure Paste around them and set some accents with it Bristle brushes

After everything is well dried, the light chain is put through the holes, fixed with hot glue, the cables can be tacked up from behind. Finally the new Christmas magic world needs four only LED tea lights.
