Would you like to give the bride and groom money for their wedding, but don't just want to hand it over only in an envelope? Then this idea for a personal and original gift of money is just the thing! We'll show you how easy it is.

First design the porcelain cup. Label the mug with the names of the bride and groom. There is also space for the wedding date on the back or on the handle. The Karin Pigment Decobrush marker is particularly suitable for labeling. Make sure that you leave a drinking rim. This should not be labeled.

Color the large polystyrene heart, the bamboo skewers and the scatter decoration with Chalky Color. We used the shades antique rose and antique grey . Let the paint dry.

Pour into the inside of the cup flower arrangement foam and place the wedding couple on top. Stick the bamboo skewers into the flower arrangement foam and attach the polystyrene heart to them with a little glue.

Decorate the whole thing with the sprinkles and the mini bunting. Wrap the banknotes in an organza bag and tie it to the bamboo skewers.

An original and personalized money gift for the wedding is ready! Have fun giving it as a gift.
