To get started, it is a good idea to try the Punch Needle on a stretched exercise fabric: the needle is pushed into the fabric, and directly on the surface of the fabric is pulled from out, pushed back in again (the needle may be pulled out of the fabric carefully and only very slightly, otherwise the thread will be pulled out again). When punching, the loops on the top side are as large as the loop size set on the punch needle. The resulting loops are then fixed to the back of the fabric. Punch Needle Teddy Cushion

Punch Needle is like painting with needle and thread. Fill the individual color fields with the corresponding wool loops until you have a teddy bear motif area created completely with Punch Needle.

The fabric can now be cut to size with a seam allowance of approx. 2 cm, a corresponding counterpart of the teddy bear motif becomes Cotton fabric the matching cushion back. To prevent the edges of the fabric from fraying, simply brush them with Textile glue .

The Punch Needle work and the Cotton fabric blank are sewn together by hand: the seam allowance is folded inwards in each case, for sewing it is best to use - this Embroidery twist is robust, and should the seam be visible through the Punch Needle work, it will not be noticed due to the fine embroidery thread. Before the pillow is finally closed, it is filled with filling cotton wool or cherry stones.
