Scary Halloween Decoration

Instructions No. 1527

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour

Halloween is just around the corner again and a spooky decoration is a must. Get inspired by our creepy instructions here and recreate for example these great lanterns, Plugs and drinking glasses for your next Halloween party. These Halloween decorations look especially creepy on a table decorated with cobwebs made of cotton wool.

First download and print the motif templates for the glass lanterns, drinking glasses, Plugs and bats.

Glass lanterns with creepy motifs

Tear the orange Straw silk paperinto small pieces. These are then fixed to the glass lanterns with decoupage glue and a soft brush(napkin brush). Let the glue dry well. If the Lanterns should be placed outside, it is recommended to apply a layer of Decoupage varnish ..to raise the money

When the paint is also well dried, transfer the motif templates to black Coloured paperand cut them out. Tip: A scalpel is suitable for filigree areas . For fixing, double-sided Adhesive tape is attached to the back of the motifs.

Drinking glasses with faces

Transfer the motif templates of the faces and the bat wings to black Coloured paperand cut them out. The faces are marked with Handicraft glue fixed to the drinking glasses. For the bats attached to the drinking glasses, first paint clothes pegs with black Acrylic paint. To make the wings look more real, draw the "veins" with Handicraft glue after. Then fix the wings with something Handicraft glue on the back of the clothespins.

Plugs Pumpkin, bat and ghost

Here too, the motif templates are first set to Coloured paper (white, black and orange) transferred and cut out. Paint the pumpkin with a fine Marker a scary face. Fix the Wobbly eyes on the ghosts and bats with something Handicraft glue.

The mouth of the ghosts is also covered with a thin Marker painted on. Finally, attach the bamboo skewers to the back of the motifs with a hot glue gun **.
