Set gnomes on skis

Instructions No. 1836

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour

Little elves belong to Christmas like Christmas trees, presents or Santa Claus. Our little companions are not only cute, but also sporty on top of it. This handicraft is perfect for an afternoon of handicrafts together with children.

This is how the elves are made

As body the figure cones are painted Handicraft paintwith white. Repeat this step in order to achieve a covering colour result. As soon as the paint has dried, you can paint on with a red Markersnowflake or other winter symbols. Cut 20 cm long strips from the paper cord, wrap them around your neck several times as a scarf and tie a knot. If necessary, cut off any protruding strips. Paint on the faces with a black Markerone. With the Handicraft paintin Old Pinkyou can paint on cheeks

Transfer the template for the cap with a pencil or a line-ex pencil to the Felt sheets and cut them out. Form the felt triangles into a cap and glue them together with craft glue. Then glue the cap on the head with handicraft glue. On the top of the cap and on the left and right side of the gnome's head Pompoms fastened. Put the ski poles together and stick them to the gnomes. Finally, the finished gnomes are glued only to the skis.
